

For the last twelve months the Enquirer has seemed with recommendations of distinguished citizens for the office of United States Senator, in place of Mr. Archer. This circumstance, and the number of strangers present at the late election, show the deep interest taken in the result. To gratify the unmistakable curiosity of the public, we devote our paper to-day to a full and correct report of the debate, votes, &c. The merits of the question can be seen presented in one view. We have just space enough to refer to Mr. Leake's successful exposure of the ill-natured remarks of the member from Lynchburg, who, in assailing the Democratic party, aspired

This fine company from the county of Montabandons a large and lucrative practice at the bar to respond to the call of his country.

On Tuesday last the company left Lynchburg for this place, and were escorted from their lodgings to the canal boat under a military escort of the volunteer companies of the town. They were addressed by James Garland, Esq., (ex-member of Congress,) in an eloquent manner; to which Capt. Preston replied in handsome terms. The boat left the landing under a salute from the artitlery, and amid the cheers of an immense con-

This gallant and soldier-like company reached this city on Saturday last, in the packet boat Exit, and proceeded to the Governor's mansion. The scene there was most impressive, and will constitute a green apot in the memory of all that were there. It caused the humblest citizen present to feel as sensibly as the monarch on his throne that he is identified with his country, and that he is bound, by sacred obligations, to live or to die in its service. We regret that we have been unable to procure at length the eloquent and glowing remust content ourselves with a brief synopsis, im-

Col. Benj. Rush Floyd, of the Virginia Legislature from the county of Wythe, presented the Montgomery company before the door of the Government mansion, and in substance said: This, Sir, is the contribution of the county of Montgomery to the public service under your Proclamation of November last-it is a contribution from a county that bears the name of a gallant soldier who died upon the plains of Abraham, in fighting the battles of Liberty! The eloquent gen-tleman further said, I esteem it a high privilege to present to you those noble, gallant men, tor youth, and I will say my friends. Under the call of their country they have come forward to engage in a distant, perilous and glorious enterprise, and will nobly maintain the honor of the service in which they have embarated.

We have no room this morning for the full proceedings of the House of Delegates yesterday .-A communication was received from the Governor, transmitting resolutions of the Legislature | To the Edders of the Enquirer : of New Hampshire on the subject of slavery .-The House unanimousty adopted a resolution to return them to the Governor of New Hampshire. The same resolution being communicated to the Senate, was unanimously adopted by that body. The House also adopted a resolution to proceed to the election of a United States Senator on Wednesday next, and also to proceed to the election of a Councillor on Thursday next.

The substitute of Mr. Strother, as amended, for he James River and Kanawha bill, was adopted -ayes 69, noes 54.

The rest of the session was occupied principalin the presentation of petitions and resolutions. The following is the communication of the Governor and the New Hampshire resolutions referred to above :

To the General Assembly of Virginia:

January 16, 1847. I received some few weeks ago a preamble and resolutions, and, at the same time, two other re-solutions, from the State of New Hampshire passed separately by the General Assembly o

Regarding one of these papers as highly insulting to Virginia, and both as tending directly to subvert the foundation upon which our federal Union was erected, I feit great difficulty as to their proper disposition. But the attempt now being made in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States to engraft one of the leading principles of these papers upon a money bill, together with the extraordinary and disorganizing sentiments avowed by its support-ers, makes it my duty, without further delay, to cal brethren have lost all regard for that common interest and affection which carried us glo riously through the war of independence and enabled us to form our present powerful Union and are selfishly and unscrupulously seeking to deprive us of our right to share and to enjoy our future acquisitions of territory, I respectfully recommend the adoption of resolutions declaratory of our rights, of our ability to maintain them, and of our firm and unalterable determination never to make another concession of them to the con-

thus obvious, that it is seriously contemplated to interfere with and overthrow the institution of slavery. Measures, therefore, must be resorted to -we must fortify our position. One of the means of so doing is to free us of a particular descrip-tion of our population, regarded as American ci-tizens in certain States, and place it in a more intimate social contact with those whose patriotism and affections seem to concentrate upon the negro race.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Whereas, the Government of the U. States, by the annexation of a foreign nation, and the admission of the State of Texas into the Union, with a Constitution which, in effect, makes slavery perto procure at length the eloquent and glowing re-marks that were delivered on this occasion. In another column will be found a notice of a difficulty between our Minister, Mr. Wise, and the Brazilian Government. The N. Y. Herald thinks the accounts exaggerated, as it is stated that a resolution was passed in the upper house of the Brazilian Parliament to expel Com. Rostion was vetoed in the other house; whereas, in fact, the Parliament was not in session. It is much to be desired that the affair is of inconsiderable moment, not calculated to break up our friendly relations with Brazil, the commerce with whom is so valuable to us.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES-YESTERDAY. | Alexander, had his arm set and bandaged in lew minutes after the accident occurred. Mi Garland is doing well, and thinks he will be able to resume his journey in a few days.

An article in your paper of this morning, (the 18th) in relation to the application now pending before the Legislature for the "Right of Way" for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, calls for a brief notice. Although such a decla ration has been recently sought, as on former occasions, Mr. McLane, President of the Baltimore Company, cannot be made to say that the Company will not prolong their road from Cum berland to Wheeling by any route through Vir ginia. Read the extracts furnished from his let ter attentively, and it will be found that his decla ration is limited to the route which he under stands to be prescribed by the present law. This seems to be well understood by the writer of the his declarations by the same limitation-"but they can never reach Wheeling by the prescribed

Those sustaining the rights and interests of Wheeling, the major part of the Northwest and the State at large, are confident of the prosecution of the road to Wheeling, because the route to that city can probably be so improved by modifica tions as to lessen its length some five miles, and reduce its cost by about half a million of dollars, avoiding much of the tunnelling and most of the higher grades, heretofore the subject of complaint. The route to Parkersburg will then be 23 miles longer, and perhaps $1,000,000 more expensive than the route to Wheeling—a comparison decisive in favor of the latter. To Wheeling as a terminus, Mr. McLane does not urge any particular straight of the comparison of the latter. cular objection apart from the prescribed route.

It has not been pretended that negotiations were now, or at any time during the present session, pending between the company and the city of Wheeling, and the supposition, therefore, of any such negotiation was altogether erroneous. But it is not my purpose to enter into any news-paper discussion of this question. The whole matter will receive minute investigation before those whose right and duty it is to decide, and to that discussion I shall leave the suggestions of Spectator.

VINDEX.

To the Editors of the Enquirer. Gentlemen:-In your editorial of Saturday morning, speaking of Mr. Hunter, you state that "his caims were based, by his friends, upon the talents he is known to possess, and upon the fact that he had once before received the nomination of a Democratic caucus," I do not remember that the fact of Mr. Hunter's having "once before received the nomination of a Democratic caucus" was alluded to by any of his friends except myself, and in your report of the proceedings in another coumn you have given the terms of that allusion with sufficient accuracy. Looking to those terms, you will see at once, as I stated on the floor, that the fact was referred to, not as constituting for Mr. Hunter any claim to support, but as showing that he was too well known to require any consumption of the time of the House in stating his merits.

You will please publish this card in your paper of to morrow morning as a correction of the error, no doubt unintentional, into which you W. P. BOCOCK have fallen. Monday, 18 January.

To the E liters of the Enquirer : Gentlemen-Please announce to the people of Spottsylvania, that I shall not be a candidate for re-election to a scat in the House of Delegates; and, as a response to various communications proposing to make me a candidate for a seat in the State Senate, you may add to that annuncia-tion, that I feel it to be my imperative duty to return to private life, and have determined to do so. Very respectfully, yours, &c., ALEX. R. HOLLADAY.

[From the New York Sun, Jan. 16,] FROM THE U.S. CALIFORNIA EXPEDI-

January 18th, 1847.

TION.
INPORTANT FROM SOUTH AMERI-CA.—The brig Reindeer, Captain Elbridge G. Winsor, arrived here last evening from Rio Janeiro, whence she sailed on the 26th November. All the vessels of the California expedition under Col. Stevenson, had arrived sale at Rio, viz: U S. transport ships Susan Drew, Loo Choo, and Thomas H. Perkins, with the U.S. ship of war Preble. The officers and men were all in good health. Every thing was quiet on board the vessels, and the troops in excellent discipline, The expedition would sail in a few days for its destination. By this arrival we have the particulars of an unfortunate misunderstanding between the U. S. minister at Rio and the Braziltween the U. S. minister at Rio and the disturbence. ian Government, which threatens to disturb our amicable relations with that nower. The difficulty originated in the arrest of two men from the U. S. Columbus, who were on shore while the men got intoxicated, and while proceeding through the streets to go on board, were placed under ar rest and conveyed to prison. Lieut. Davis, of the Columbus, was on shore with the men; being the Columbus, was on shore with the men; being and paid by followed, calling on them to accompany him .-Before he got up, they were taken into the fort.— On arriving at the fort, he drew his sword in evidence of his authority as an officer of the United States, and demanded their release. The guards then beckoned to him to come in, and supposing them desirous of having an interview with him in relation to the men, he did so, but immediately found himself and his men prisoners. Mr. Wise, the United States Minister, being apprised of the occurrence by Commodore Rosseau, of the Columbia, opened a corres pondence with the Brazilian government, depondence with the Brazilian government, de-manding their release. The reply being deem-ed unsatisfactory, was answered by another com-munication from the Minister, informing their that the Columbis would open her batteries upon the city in two hours, if Lieutenant Davis and the men were not released within that time. The Lieutenant was promptly released, but the men were detained under a plea that being found intoxicated in the street they were amenable to punishment by the civil authorities Farther correspondence ensued, the men still remaining in custody. A day or two after this occurrence the Emperor's youngest child the infanta Isabel la, was christened, the ceremony being honored by salutes from vessels of war, and the illumination of the dwellings of the foreign ministers The fete lasted a whole week. But Commodore Rosseau and Mr. Wise declined to join in any ceremonles of this character, until tull reperation had been made for the insult offered to their country. The authorities requested the Commo-Mr. Wise and other Americans did not illumin-ate!their dwellings, and have consequently been subjected to repeated insults. The son Consul was assaulted in the streets, and seriously wounded. The subject was taken up in the National Parliament, then in session. The House of Commons passed a bill requesting the withdrawal of Mr. Wise, but the upper House rejected it, and the Commons tendered their re signation in a body. Thus the affair rested at last advices, the men being still in prison.

During the excitement at Rio, the California boys arrived and resolved to have an opposition of whom were born on the passage. A splendid silver cup was provided as a present for the young volunteers, whom the Chaplain duly christened Alto California. Col. Stevenson stood God-father on the occasion. All the officers of the ships and many of the Americans were present. It was a splendid affair, and operated as a hint to the Bra-zilians, who were somewhat astonished at the American volunteers leaving their homes in such numbers to go half round the world. The volunteers were allowed full privileges on shore, but there had not been a single desertion. Col. Stevenson made a speech to them in relation to the difficulties, and every man expressed his readiness to join in storming the city of Rio, if necessary to sustain the honor of their country's flag.

A Positive and Permanent Cure for CONSUMPTION. CONSUMPTION AND DEATH will most assuredly be an early fate of those who neglect themselves when afflicted with the premonitory symptoms of CONSUMPTION, such as Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, or Soreness of the Throat. Dr. SWAYNE'S COM-POUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY is expressly pre-pared for the removal and cure of those dangerous and troublesome diseases.

plaints, procure immediate-ly this medicine, before it is too late. One bottle may be the means of prolonging your life. Be sure and see that the signature of Dr. SWAYNE is ON EACH BOTTLE. of prolonging your life. Be sure and see that the signature of Dr. SWAYNE is ON EACH BOTTLE.

Another life saved by the use of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry:

Dr. H. Swayne.—Dear Sir: Being for a length of time afflicted with a very violent cough, with pain in my side and breast, soreness of the lungs, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, night sweats, &c., I made trial of various remedies which were recommended highly in the papers, but gradually grew worse. The violence of my cough was such, that the blood rushed profuely from my nostrils when the paroxysms of coughing came upon me—indeed, my whole system seemed prostrated, and the hour of my departure seemed near at hand. At this time you recommended the use of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which immediately began to soothe, comfort, and aliay the violence of my cough, relieve the pain in my side, strengthened and healed my lungs, &c. I continued the use of it, but now, thanks to God, and to the effect of your COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, I am cured, and able to pursue cry daily labors. I think it an invaluable medicine in Coughs, Colds and Diseases of the Lungs, and one that should be known to all afflicted. If persons would purchase the original and genuine article as prepared by you, and not tumper with the many spurious and worthless preparations which are attempted to be palmed off on the reputation of yours, it might be the means of saving many valuable lives. I freely offer this statement for the benefit of those who are suffering as I was.

EZENIEL THOMAS, in 18th st.,

Mr. Thomas's cuse, show alinded to, was a very severe one, and his residence is within the reach of all, so that any one can call and have the above substantiated by a personal interview. Be careful, if you would becared, to purchase no preparation purporting to contain Wild Cherry, except that hearing the written signature of Dr. SWAYNE. All others are facilities and counterfeit.

All hall! ye countless victims of Consumption's blast ing breath.
All hail! ye stricken mortals, ere ye sleep the sleep of "While there is life there's hope" for you-"Wild Cherry" can yet save;
Arise ye! oh! arise ye from the margin of the grave;
"Tis "Dr. Swayne's Wild Cherry" that will save you

this tree,
By their Paragoric cores and rhyming ribaldry;
Beware of him who buys the right to tamper with you health; Who adds "Wild Cherry" to his name by treachery and stealth; Who bottles Paragoric, and then calls it, through deceit, The "Balsam of Wild Cherry!" Oh! beware of such nalsam a ch-at! If you won! and shun the venal craft, be healthy and be best.

Trust not the leeching parasite, to truth and justice cold, Wno'd hover o'er your latest breath to catch a gleam of Who'd hover o'er your latest breath to catch a gream of gold;
That proudly hoasts his stolen name, and wondrous skill to save;
Who'd tar you on the bed of death, and haste you to your grave;

THE MONTGOMERY VOLUNTEERS. gomery, 98 strong, reached the town of Lynchburg some days since. On their arrival, they were received with military honors by the volunteer companies of the town. The hospitalities of the place were then tendered on behalf of the citizens by W. M. Blackford, and by Capt. Fair on behalf of the military. Capt. Preston responded in handsome and eloquent terms. The company is a remarkably fine one. Capt. Preston is the son of a gallant soldier, a former Governor of this Commonwealth, and was educated at West Point. He is a gentleman of high character, and perfect as it is.

was applauded frequently as he proceeded. I receive this contribution to the regiment called the land and the saviour of our infant settlements at Jamestown. As he has eloquently remarked, this company comes from a county that bears this company comes from a county that bears the glorious name of Montgomery—a name that cannot be repeated on such occasions as this without a thrill of pleasure. This county is also distinguished as the residence, if not the death bed, of a former Governor of Virginia, many of whose traits of character I have loved, respected and admired. The commander of this other gallant Governor of Virginia, who, in the war of 1812, won for himself a soldier's name and a country's gratitude. These various recollections must touch the proudest sensibilities of our nature and excite some of our finest and noblest feelings. It is known, too, that many of them are the sons of gallant fathers, who, in the try by sacrificing their lives, not upon the battle field but under the influence of the climate of raised in our mountain country. I advert to these various interesting subjects for the purpose of manifesting my high appreciation of the gallant

MANSFIELD ACADEMY.

A MATHEMATICAL and Classical School, by Alfred G. A. Coleman, will be re-opened on the 15th January, 1847, and close 15th December following, with a vacation of six weeks some time in the Summer. In this School will be taught all the branches preparatory to College, and full courses of Mathematics and Languages, with other subjects, so far as practicable in an Academy, to young men not intending to finish their education at College.

He will continue to pursue his former mode of instruction, critically analyzing each recitation, rendering it clear and intelligible by familiar lectures. In order to give variety and zest, the Lancasterian and inductive modes will also be pursued.
